Testifies as to Events Leading Up to Publication of Alleged Libel Pamphlet by Committee of Defence

ONE QUESTION ASKED BY WITNESS
HAD TO BE WRITTEN DOWN

Case for the Plaintiff is Closed.
Motion of Counsel for Defence to Dismiss Action is Not Sustained

Hearing of evidence in the libel case of McLeod vs. Barker, which is being tried before Mr. Justice Scott and a jury in the Supreme court continued throughout the morning and afternoon of yesterday. The case for the plaintiff, K. A. McLeod, was reached. Before calling any witnesses for the defence, John E. Boyle, who is appearing for Mr. Travis-Barker, moved that the case be withdrawn from the jury and the action dismissed on the ground that the plaintiff had not satisfied the court of proving the publication of the pamphlet complained of in the statement of claim. The defence was dismissed on the ground that the publication of the Stimmel declaration was privileged or justifiable in that it defended Mr. Barker from a charge which had been made against him. Mr. Justice Scott did not sustain Mr. Boyle in his motion and ruled that the case should go to the jury.

Plaintiff on the Stand.
A. Stimmel, auctioneer, and a friend of Mr. McLeod, was the first witness called at this morning's session of the court. Several other witnesses were called but the principal examination was that of the plaintiff, Mr. McLeod, which lasted over an hour. Mr. Stimmel, examined by Mr. McLeod, told of a visit to his office in Quebec avenue, by the market square, of Mr. Travis-Barker on the morning of April 4. Mr. Barker was accompanied by another gentleman, whom Mr. Stimmel did not know, Mr. Kenway. The purpose of the visit was to induce him to sign a declaration that he had never been offered a free market site on First street, near Exchange Mart, by Mr. Travis-Barker. A declaration already written was produced by Mr. Travis-Barker, and this he signed and gave to Mr. Stimmel. A moment later it occurred to him that the statement might be "Hold on to that."

You Have Signed It.
"Hold on to that," said Mr. Travis-Barker and Mr. Kenway, who were on the point of leaving his office. "Wait till I have consulted Mr. McLeod over the phone."

Mr. Travis-Barker replied, "You have signed this before a J. P. and you are about to leave the court. An argument followed during which Mr. Travis-Barker said that he was going to have the action dismissed. You needn't be afraid of your signature," he said and they went. "Nothing but the truth and that we got."

Later in the day he had seen Mr. McLeod, and that night he attended a meeting in the Separate school hall where a copy of the pamphlet was handed to him. Cross-examined by Mr. Boyle as to the truth of the declaration he had signed, Mr. Stimmel admitted that the first part was true, that Mr. Travis-Barker had never offered him a market site, but that he had signed the declaration after being offered one by Mr. Travis-Barker. He had offered Mr. Travis-Barker a house of $10,000 and a piece of ground occupied by another man.

Hooke, who is a letter carrier and prospective alderman, be sent to all the labor centres in Canada and the United States to place the position of Freedomenka before the people. It was also announced that the Trade and Labor council are seeking the financial aid of the Dominion Trades and Labor council for the Freedomenka propaganda.

CALGARY CITIZENS OPPOSE CHINAMEN

But City Council Turn Down Petition Which Has For Its Object The Prevention of Chinamen Erecting Business Blocks.

Special to the Bulletin.

Calgary, Oct. 27.—James A. MacDonald, architect for the proposed King George Hotel, in a letter to the city council tonight, charged building inspector Harrison with having deliberately charged the number of the bill under which the hotel was to be built on the back of the permit for the building.

This is the hotel for which the council authorized a permit contrary to the provisions of the building by-law regarding street front buildings of six stories.

The council tonight turned down the petition of residents that all sections of the city north of Fourth avenue be declared residential. The object of the petition was to prevent Chinamen from building a large business block on Second, Avenue and Centre street. The Chinamen are forced through the extension of the business section to abandon the quarters on Tenth avenue and to form a colony on Second, which the petitioners oppose.

Petitions largely signed will be presented to Mayor Jamieson on Saturday asking reconsideration of his decision not to accept the third tier. The Mayor has agreed to consider the petition although the council has not yet seen his way clear to accept either another year. Other candidates for the mayoralty are Ald. J. W. Mitchell and Ald. Dr. Egbert.

A party composed of Dr. A. M. Scott, superintendent of schools, Inspector J. A. Smith, Principal Newcombe, Principal MacFarlane, and principal school, leave on Friday for Edmonton to attend the meeting of the committee appointed by the department of education to consider the school course of study. Dr. Tarr is chairman.

NURSE SHOWED BRAVERY.

At Risk of Her Own Life She Attended Injured Teamster.

Port William, Ont., Oct. 27.—After winning her fight for the life of a man, Summers, the locomotive fireman, who was frightfully injured in the Canadian Pacific railway wreck near Carter last Sunday, Miss Blanche Perry, trained nurse, was married here. Miss Perry was a passenger for Port William on the express train which collided head-on with an east-bound freight. An engineer and fireman were killed outright, and William Summers was badly injured that it was feared he could not survive. Miss Perry was the only person on board skilled in dressing wounds, and was one of the first to respond.

She was in a dressing room, and at the peril of her own health, she worked over Summers until the arrival of the relief train. Then without even stopping to secure a bath, the young nurse continued the fight until the victim reached the Chapeau hospital.

In the meantime her own hand had come wet, carrying with it her purse, ticket and clothing. She did not delay about her belongings, but hurried to Port William to attend to the wedding, which took place in the Baptist church.

Mr. William Mackenzie, of the Imperial Oil company, is the lucky man, the physician at the hospital says that Miss Perry's bravery saved Summers' life. He had been injured so severely that correspondents reported him dead.

Halfway men all along the division are contributing to a purse in recognition of the brave deed.

SKULL FRACTURED FOR YEARS.

Man in Maine Blown Up Just Now.

Learns of Injury—To Undergo Operation.

New York, Oct. 27.—Although Corporal William F. Richards suffered from a fracture of the skull when shot in battle Maine was blown up in Havana harbor twelve years ago, he did not know until a few days ago when he was informed of the nature of his injury by a New York hospital surgeon. At the time of the accident Richards supposed his injury was nothing more than a scalp wound.

But at intervals ever since he has had severe headaches which compelled him finally to seek the naval hospital here for treatment. His ailment was relieved through a series of operations which already have been begun by the naval surgeons.

Despite his fractured skull, Richards fought through the Spanish-American war and continued in the government service as a cavalryman on land and as a woman on the water and passed several physical examinations successfully.

The well-known trade paper, "Construction" is of the opinion that the meeting of the cement industry is going to work out well from the viewpoint of the general public. This paper, "the news" was received with some misgivings by the manufacturers, on the other hand, declared emphatically that there was absolutely no ground for any alarm, but that the merger had been formed only for the purpose of effecting economies in management, personnel, sales and freight, together with the object of increasing the consumption of cement through a systematic educational campaign, as to where, how and when, cement may be profitably used.

In addition to this, the merger frankly declared that it proposed to bring to an end the ruinous speculation that up to the time of its birth, was eating the very vitals out of the industry.

The merger, in this manner, committed itself to a constructive policy and disclaimed any intention of adopting any method or undertaking any procedure that would demoralize the market either from the standpoint of the consumer or the independent manufacturer.

"One year has passed, and it is gratifying to note that the merger has made good its promises and kept faith with both consumers and independent manufacturer alike."

The consumer will get his cement for $10.00 an average price of $12.50 per barrel at the mill—no price lower than has heretofore prevailed in Canada, with the exception of the short interval during 1909, when cement was being sold below actual cost of production, a condition that could not continue for any length of time.

"As long as the cement interests continue to develop the industry on these lines, as long as their policy continues to be constructive, they are deserving of the good will and support of the Canadian building public."

URGENT FEDERAL SUBSIDY.

Press of Vancouver Suggest This as New Competitor Threatens.

Vancouver, Oct. 27.—The press of Vancouver are spring that as the extension of the Canadian Australian steamship line is threatened by the establishment of a competing line from San Francisco to New Zealand, the Dominion Government should award a five year contract for a mail subsidy on the Canadian route. Tender for the Canadian-New Zealand service will be opened by the department of trade and commerce, Ottawa, November 1st.

The press merchants declare that a five year contract is necessary to insure a first class service on the route of the competing United States service.

PORTUGUESE FEAR

MILITARY REBELLION

Troops Who Made Republic Possible Showing Extreme Independence—Official Pleads With Men—Church Minister to Be Formally Sequestered.

Lisbon, Oct. 28.—The Republican government is uneasy over the attitude of the regiments which made the revolution possible. Not only is the military, the soldiers, fearful of victory, are showing extreme independence and are championing the monarchy, as being adopted in the hands of the military.

The minister's reason for so far from leaving of absence for four months in the field, with full pay, is the desire to break up the regiments temporarily and remove the danger of a military rebellion. The majority of the regiments are being sent to accept this offer, saying that they would not be duped by the deceptive liberality of the cabinet.

Minister Makes Personal Plea. The minister of justice, in his own person, pleaded the necessity of patience and forbearance to the members of the republic. The attitude of the military, which included the First Artillery and the Second Infantry in addition to a battalion of cavalry, is being adopted by the military and civil republicans who are impatient to gather the fruits of victory.

On the other hand, monarchists officers and others who have sworn allegiance to the republic, are at present retaining their positions.

Rebellion of Church and State. The minister of justice is framing a bill looking for the separation of the church and state. The Republican press declares that the presence of monarchist priests, whom Monsignor Vontin, the papal nuncio, left on board of the steamer when he departed for Rome, is a parallel case to that of Monsignor Montanelli, ex-secretary of the Papal nunciature at Paris, who was expelled from France and Italy. That Monsignor Montanelli was expelled from Portugal is estimated at $250,000.

PLANTIFF IN

Mr. Haldane was the last witness called for the plaintiff.

"I suppose Mr. Travis-Barker never said anything in reply to that?" "He never stopped talking."

"Had your words no effect upon him?" "He flushed and jumped around a little, but didn't seem to pay much attention to the state tax."

"You saw it hurt him?" "It didn't seem to." "It was just a little snip prick."

"If you like." "He must have a pretty thick skin then," said Mr. Boyle.

"You then went downstairs and had some further conversation with Mr. Travis-Barker there?" "Yes."

"And what was said?" "Oh, Mr. Travis-Barker was holding forth on his good qualities."

"And what did you say to him?" "I told him that he had tried to steal a tenant from me."

"And what was the effect?" "That created a greater storm than on the other occasion," Mr. McLeod said.

"I don't think there was any man in the crowd but Mr. Travis-Barker?" "Verily, yes."

"And was this expression you addressed to Mr. Travis-Barker in your usual style of language?" "I never used the expression before, but I don't think I shall use it again. I was wondering how it came out."

"Outburst of laughter and Judge Scott said for order in the court."

"Did you not also tell Mr. Travis-Barker?" continued Mr. Boyle, "that he had been bitten into the head by a board and had got turned down?"

"And he let you get away with it, did he?" "I don't remember."

"And did you not accuse him of being Dave McDougall's agent?" "No, I did not."

"Were you and Mr. Travis-Barker in good terms prior to this occasion?" "Yes."

"Subsequently, did you not tell Mr. Travis-Barker that if he would give you the names of the committee of the school, you would drop all action against him?"

"I certainly did not."

"You employed the detective, Griffith, did you not?" "Yes."

"Your solicitors, Robertson, Dickson & McDonald did, then?" "I told them to take every step necessary to ferret the matter to the bottom."

"Did you not instruct Mr. Griffith to go and see whether Mr. Travis-Barker had anything to say against him?"

"No, I told him to go and get any information he could touching the new."

Mr. Boyle here completed his examination of Mr. McLeod.

Agreed to Forget It. Mr. McLeod then asked the question: "On the 25th of this month, in conversation with Mr. Travis-Barker, he is currently stated in Mr. Barker's examination for discovery that on the evening of the 25th, after all this had passed, that you shook hands with each other and agreed to forget all about it."

"That is true."

Mr. P. G. Haldane, real estate broker, who was present at the trial in the Separate School Hall, on the night of April 4th, and was handed a copy of the pamphlet, was examined by Mr. McLeod as to his opinion of the statements it contained. He said that he believed the whole thing to be aimed at S. A. McLeod. He thought it a scandalous thing for any man to publish such an article. He was not prepared to say what effect it might have on Mr. McLeod's reputation.

Are recognized by farmers to be the best, because:

They are the only pump on the globe "So Easy to fix."

Repairs are easily made—a boy can do it with a monkey-wrench.

They comprise good material, good design and good quality.

They raise water easier than other pumps.

The large pipe permits use of wood rod, which being buoyant, relieves a lot of strain.

CORBETT TAKES ABOUT THE BOXERS

Hitting Nelson With Power for Light, Weight Heavy in Picked Units with the Best of the Boxers and True Little Tubbins.

New York, Oct. 27.—Battling Nelson appears to have upset the dope on "come back" question. The Battler gave a good account of himself in his first tryout since the defeat by Wolgast. Monty Bain was the victor in the victim and while the latter by Wolgast, Nelson had demonstrated before the crowd that he was not a victim of the victim and while the latter by Wolgast, Nelson had demonstrated before the crowd that he was not a victim of the victim.

The next important match on the program for New York fans is the proposed bout between Jack Johnson and James J. Braddock. The two men were matched to fight early in the present month, but an illness of the clever Gloucester hand necessitated a postponement. Braddock, however, is willing to make 125 pounds for good money and will fight on Oct. 31. This is no bit in the match-making.

CUBS OLD GUARD WILL BE MISSING

Manager Frank Chance of the Cubs is expected to leave for Chicago tomorrow, and it is probable that the old guard of the National League team will be missing from the lineup.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—That an entirely new line-up will represent Chicago in the National League next year, was predicted today as the result of the interview with the manager. The old guard of the Cubs is expected to be missing from the lineup. The manager, Frank Chance, is expected to leave for Chicago tomorrow, and it is probable that the old guard of the National League team will be missing from the lineup.

It is more than likely that either will go. Reinhardt, who has been with the Cubs since 1907, is expected to be missing from the lineup. The manager, Frank Chance, is expected to leave for Chicago tomorrow, and it is probable that the old guard of the National League team will be missing from the lineup.

Only 21 years of age, Ketchell has been a champion since he was 19. He is expected to be missing from the lineup. The manager, Frank Chance, is expected to leave for Chicago tomorrow, and it is probable that the old guard of the National League team will be missing from the lineup.

Be On Your Guard Against Imitations Of "PROGRESSO" Overcoats

The successful article is always imitated. "PROGRESSO" is the most successful creation in Overcoats ever introduced into Canada.

Its distinctive features are so unique and valuable that they have been patented. This, however, does not prevent others from making extravagant claims for cheap imitations.

MADE AND GUARANTEED BY H. VINEBERG & CO. LIMITED, MONTREAL. Sold with a guarantee by Edmonton Clothing Co., Edmonton.

WILL OPEN NEW ANGLICAN CHURCH

Handsome Mission Church on Kennedy Street Presented by Sir Henry Pellatt

The new church of St. Paul's (Anglican), situated on Kennedy street, south of Albert street, was formally opened today by the Right Rev. Cyprian Pinkham, bishop of Calgary.

At a 4 p.m. there was a celebration of holy communion and dedication of the handsome little chapel presented to the mission by Sir Henry Pellatt and at 8 p.m. there was an evening service to be held at which the attached schoolroom will be dedicated.

The chapel forms the chance of a temporary church. The schoolroom which is separated from the chapel by folding doors, will afford a body for the church of sufficient size to meet the needs of the parish for some time to come.

Two Money Heistesses.

In addition to the chapel and school room, a two story residence has been erected to provide a home for the twelve priests and lay workers associated with the mission. The building measures 35 feet by 30 feet. On the ground floor are kitchen, dining room, library, vestry and office. On the first floor are six small bedrooms, a den, and a bathroom, and above these a large attic. A garage has also been erected to provide accommodation for the several limousines used by the men who engage in work in the outlying districts.

The site upon which the mission is situated, which affords an area large enough for the church, school and garage, was purchased by Sir Henry Pellatt, a permanent church, was with the schoolroom, presented to the mission by Mrs. Alfred Boyd in memory of her husband, the Hon. Alfred Boyd, secretary of the first provincial government of Manitoba.

The contractor who has had the work in charge is known to be a well known builder. The building will be completed for residence before December 1st. The approximate cost of the buildings is $10,000.

The Famous Rayo

Gives the Best Light at Any Price

When you pay more than the Rayo price for a lamp, you are paying for extra decorations that cannot add to the quality of the light. You can't pay for a better light, because there is none. An oil light has the least effect on the human eye, and the Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made, though low in price. You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for some other lamp, and although you get more candle power, you can't get a better light than the white, mellow, diffused, unflattering light of the low-price Rayo.

Has a strong, durable shade-holder. This season's burner adds to the strength and appearance. Made of solid brass, nickel-plated and enameled.

J. TRAVIS-BARKER IN SUIT FOR LIBEL

In Defendant an Action for $10,000—Damages Brought by K. A. McLeod

J. Travis-Barker, the defendant in the action for $10,000 damages for libel brought by K. A. McLeod, occupied the witness box all yesterday afternoon in the Supreme Court. The hearing of the case commenced when the court resumed its sitting after lunch and a jury had been sworn in.

The point in doubt is whether the Canadian Pacific Railway has to extend their agreement for exemption from taxation with the city to cover this deal.

Harris thinks that there may be a fight over it. Over four thousand is being paid now in taxes on the property.

C.P.R. AND WINNIPEG.

Answer Thinks That No Year Lease of Canada Life Property May Come Off

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—City Assessor Harris had something to say today regarding the attitude of the city towards the Canadian Pacific Railway's valuable site at the corner of Portage and Main.

It is understood that the Canadian Pacific Railway will tear down the old building and erect a new office building, this to be known under the agreement of lease as the Canada Life Company's valuable site at the corner of Portage and Main.

The point in doubt is whether the Canadian Pacific Railway has to extend their agreement for exemption from taxation with the city to cover this deal.

Harris thinks that there may be a fight over it. Over four thousand is being paid now in taxes on the property.

VICTORIA B.C. HAD NARROW ESCAPE

For Over Four Hours Firemen Aided by Soldiers Fought to Quell the Flames

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 27.—For over four hours last night Victoria firemen, aided by soldiers from the Garrison at Work Point Barracks, Esquimalt, and local militia, fought to save the business section of the city from destruction. If at any time the wind had freshened, the whole district along Government street from the Free Building to the Victoria Hotel would have been consumed. As it was, only the heroic efforts of the fire fighters confined the conflagration to one big block bounded by Government, First and Broad streets.

Without a definite list of losses, and in the absence of information on the extent of the damage, it is difficult to make a calculation of the losses. The fire spread rapidly, and the firemen were unable to contain it.

The fire started soon after eleven o'clock in the business section of the city. It spread rapidly, and the firemen were unable to contain it.

RUMOR OF REVOLT NOW FROM ATHENS

Berlin Hears of Revolution and Inquiries of Grecian Capital Bring No Reply

Berlin, Germany, Oct. 27.—There is a persistent rumor in financial circles here today that a revolution has broken out at Athens. Verifiable inquiries sent to the Grecian capital today elicited no reply.

There has been much ill-feeling at Athens recently against the national assembly, culminating in the dissolution of that body last Tuesday. The assembly was especially elected for the purpose of undertaking a revision of the constitution. At the request of King George, King Venizelos, the Cretan leader, formed a cabinet on October 14th.

The ministry was not received in a friendly manner by a number of members of the assembly, who were themselves present when the premier endeavored to secure a vote of confidence.

The premier discouraged, announced the resignation of the cabinet on October 23rd.

The King refused to accept the resignation and on Monday the chamber adopted a vote of confidence in the premier, and insisted that the assembly be dissolved. He had his way and the cabinet was re-formed.

The rumor was not satisfied, however, feeling that it was a vote of confidence rather than a vote of support, and insisted that the assembly be dissolved. He had his way and the cabinet was re-formed.
